

DEDICATION

do I really have something to say and do you even care I still struggle with for what it's worth but now it'll turn to good it's in the songs my dear - where I find relief it heals everything in me my whole life, right, I now dedicate to these drums and these guitars this song will never gonna save - your life still searching for a song that saves play, stop, pause - than start over again I'm the only one who cares I no longer need any excuse to do this on my own it's from the heart my dear – but I never reveal I always weigh your words sometimes I win - sometimes I loose I stick to it down the line

this song will never gonna save - your life
still searching for a song that saves

I STILL FEEL – WIRED UP WHEN THEY HIT THESE CHORDS GO AHEAD AND SAVE MY DAY
