

I SEEK SILENCE

every empty space they try to fill with rage and every word they use to sell you a dream because your tiredness is exactly what they want don't give them anymore don't let them consume you if you can't stand this emptiness I guess your just afraid of yourself if you can't bear this nothingness

I guess your just afraid of yourself

I don't want to hear them anymore
