

OUT OF STEP

let me tell you what you see in me 'cos I don't mind what they say anymore well you know it's just a lie I'm sure you do you didn't believe I'll ever change all the drinks and all the laughs we shared all the fights now who's to blame not a word about the past we shared with the lights out who's to blame there's no need for me to try to be all the things you want me to be I take my last chance and tie my boots they're terribly worn but got a soul if I keep walking in your shoes I won't leave no footsteps no I don't walk in your shoes I'm out of step
